"The great thing in this world is not so much where we are,

But in what direction
we are moving."

O.W. Holmes

You give but little When you give of your possessions.
It is when you give of yourself
That you truly give.

Our yesterdays follow us; they constitute our life, and they give character and force and meaning to our present deeds.

Take Time

Take time to work . . . it's the one way street to success

Take time to think . . . thought distinguishes humanity.

Take time to play . . . it's the joy of a youthful mind and body.

Take time to read . . . it enriches us.

Take time to pray . . . it's a sign of humility.

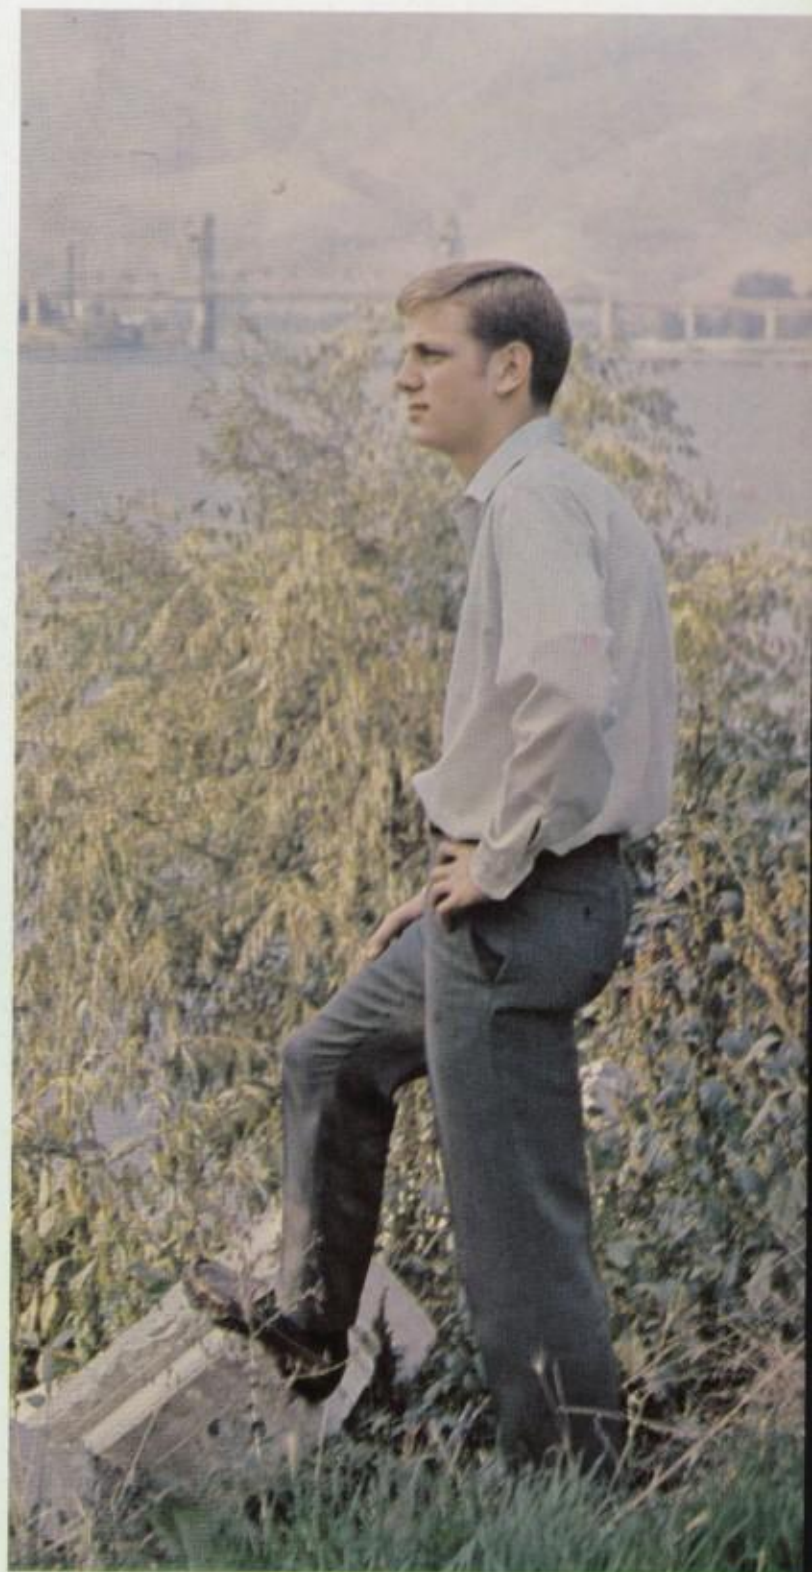

Take time to help family and friends . . . they are our happiness

Take time to dream . . . it hitches your soul to the stars.

Take time to laugh . . . for laughter lifts cares.

Take time to love . . . for love is the meaning of life.

Katherine Davis

Life is full of memories
as time rolls on its way,
And the present shall become a memory, too, someday.

Time . . .

Activities . . . Togetherness . . . Friendship . . . Memories . . .

There's a long, long road a-winding through the happy yesterdays,
As I find myself a-dreaming of those cherished bygone days.

Time

Is

Transition

A Memorial . . .

To those who have given their lives in fighting for a cause.

If I should die
let it be in peace.
For I want to hear silence sing of God.

Graduating---

A senior at last . . .
 I look back at my high school life,
 Realizing that it is rapidly ending.
 Months shrink to weeks and days.
 Eagerness mingled with fear,
 Fear of an uncertain future.

We have walked together as a class,
 Finding each other and ourselves
 During three years.
 We have found good and bad,
 And know where we are
 Although some of us do not know why.
 Now all of us,
 The familiar faces, walk away,
 Each seeking his own path,
 Each to find his own tomorrow.

Standing tall, we walk our last steps
 Together . . . to graduation.
 I am leaving.

Growing -

Some older, some wiser,
 Some confused about life,
 We, the juniors, find new answers,
 Only to attain new responsibilities.
 We develop as a group,
 Growing to be individuals
 With a common spirit in our school.
 Interest grows wider and deeper . . .
 We know next year will be "our" year,
 Our last year to make it what we will.

SOPHOC

Beginning -

Our sophomore year presents new challenges

Inexperienced, unsure, but enthusiastic,

We follow the upper classmen.

We ask why and begin to discover.

We learn and experience,

Living on wishes and hopes,

More than achievements,

Planning on years to come.

There is time.

Sophomore Class Officers

We're almost through with our first year at L.H.S. We've shown the upper classmen and the teachers that we Sophomores have had something to say and accomplished just that. I know the Sophomore Class will be remembered and '73' will be the year to rule all others.

Steve MacKelvie
Sophomore Class President

Sophomore Class Officers: Judy Moore, treasurer; Cinda Cone, secretary; Steve MacKelvie, president; Mark Harris, vice-president.

Sharing - Giving

Imparting knowledge is only lighting other men's candles at our lamp, without depriving ourselves of any flame.

The world abounds with those who deride,
and call your efforts vain.
Few are those who are glad you tried,
and will urge you to try again.
Few will help when your step is unsure,
and urge you to find your own way,
Standing by you and for you,
whatever you do,
and listening to all that you say,
Through three years of learning and adjusting to life,
we were lucky to have found our share.
To those who gave of themselves
to us,
Thank-you for just being there.

Machinery Behind LHS

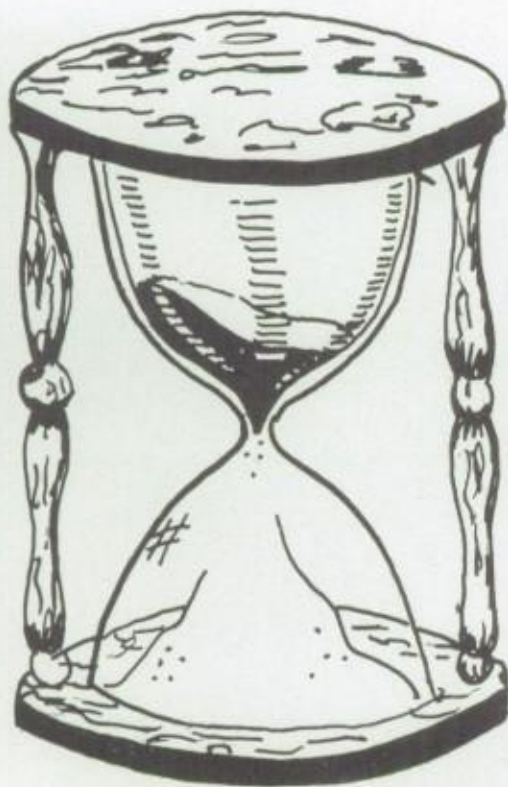

Although new this year, Mary Heath has proven to be a great asset helping in the office.

Custodians of LHS work hard keeping our school clean and neat. Standing from top to bottom are Sherm Schrock, Ron Wiecatlman, Bill Bowen, Janette Bartholomew, Ray Crom, and Dale Perry.

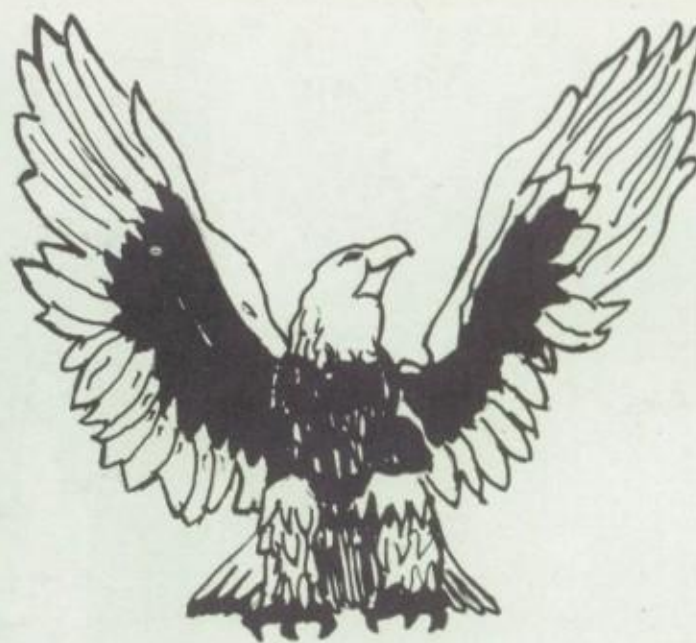

Our LHS cooks really know how to hit the spot. Seated are Della Biddiscombe and Virginia English. Standing are Leone Lovejoy, Henrietta Tusburg, and Dorothy Ellis.

Competing -

Finding oneself through the self-discipline of forcing one's body beyond its usual limits.

Learning that pride is learned by doing one's best - even when the opponent does better;

And learning that sports, like life's pressures, peels away the layers of . . .

Society's polite training - and seeing oneself . . .

more realistically than ever before.

Days of hope; days of rejections;
anxiety . . . glory-less for oneself,

More for the team . . . learning to judge oneself by one's own

Strength or weakness.

The numbers of the score do not tell everything.

Even before the final drive,
the surge at the tape,

The last play,

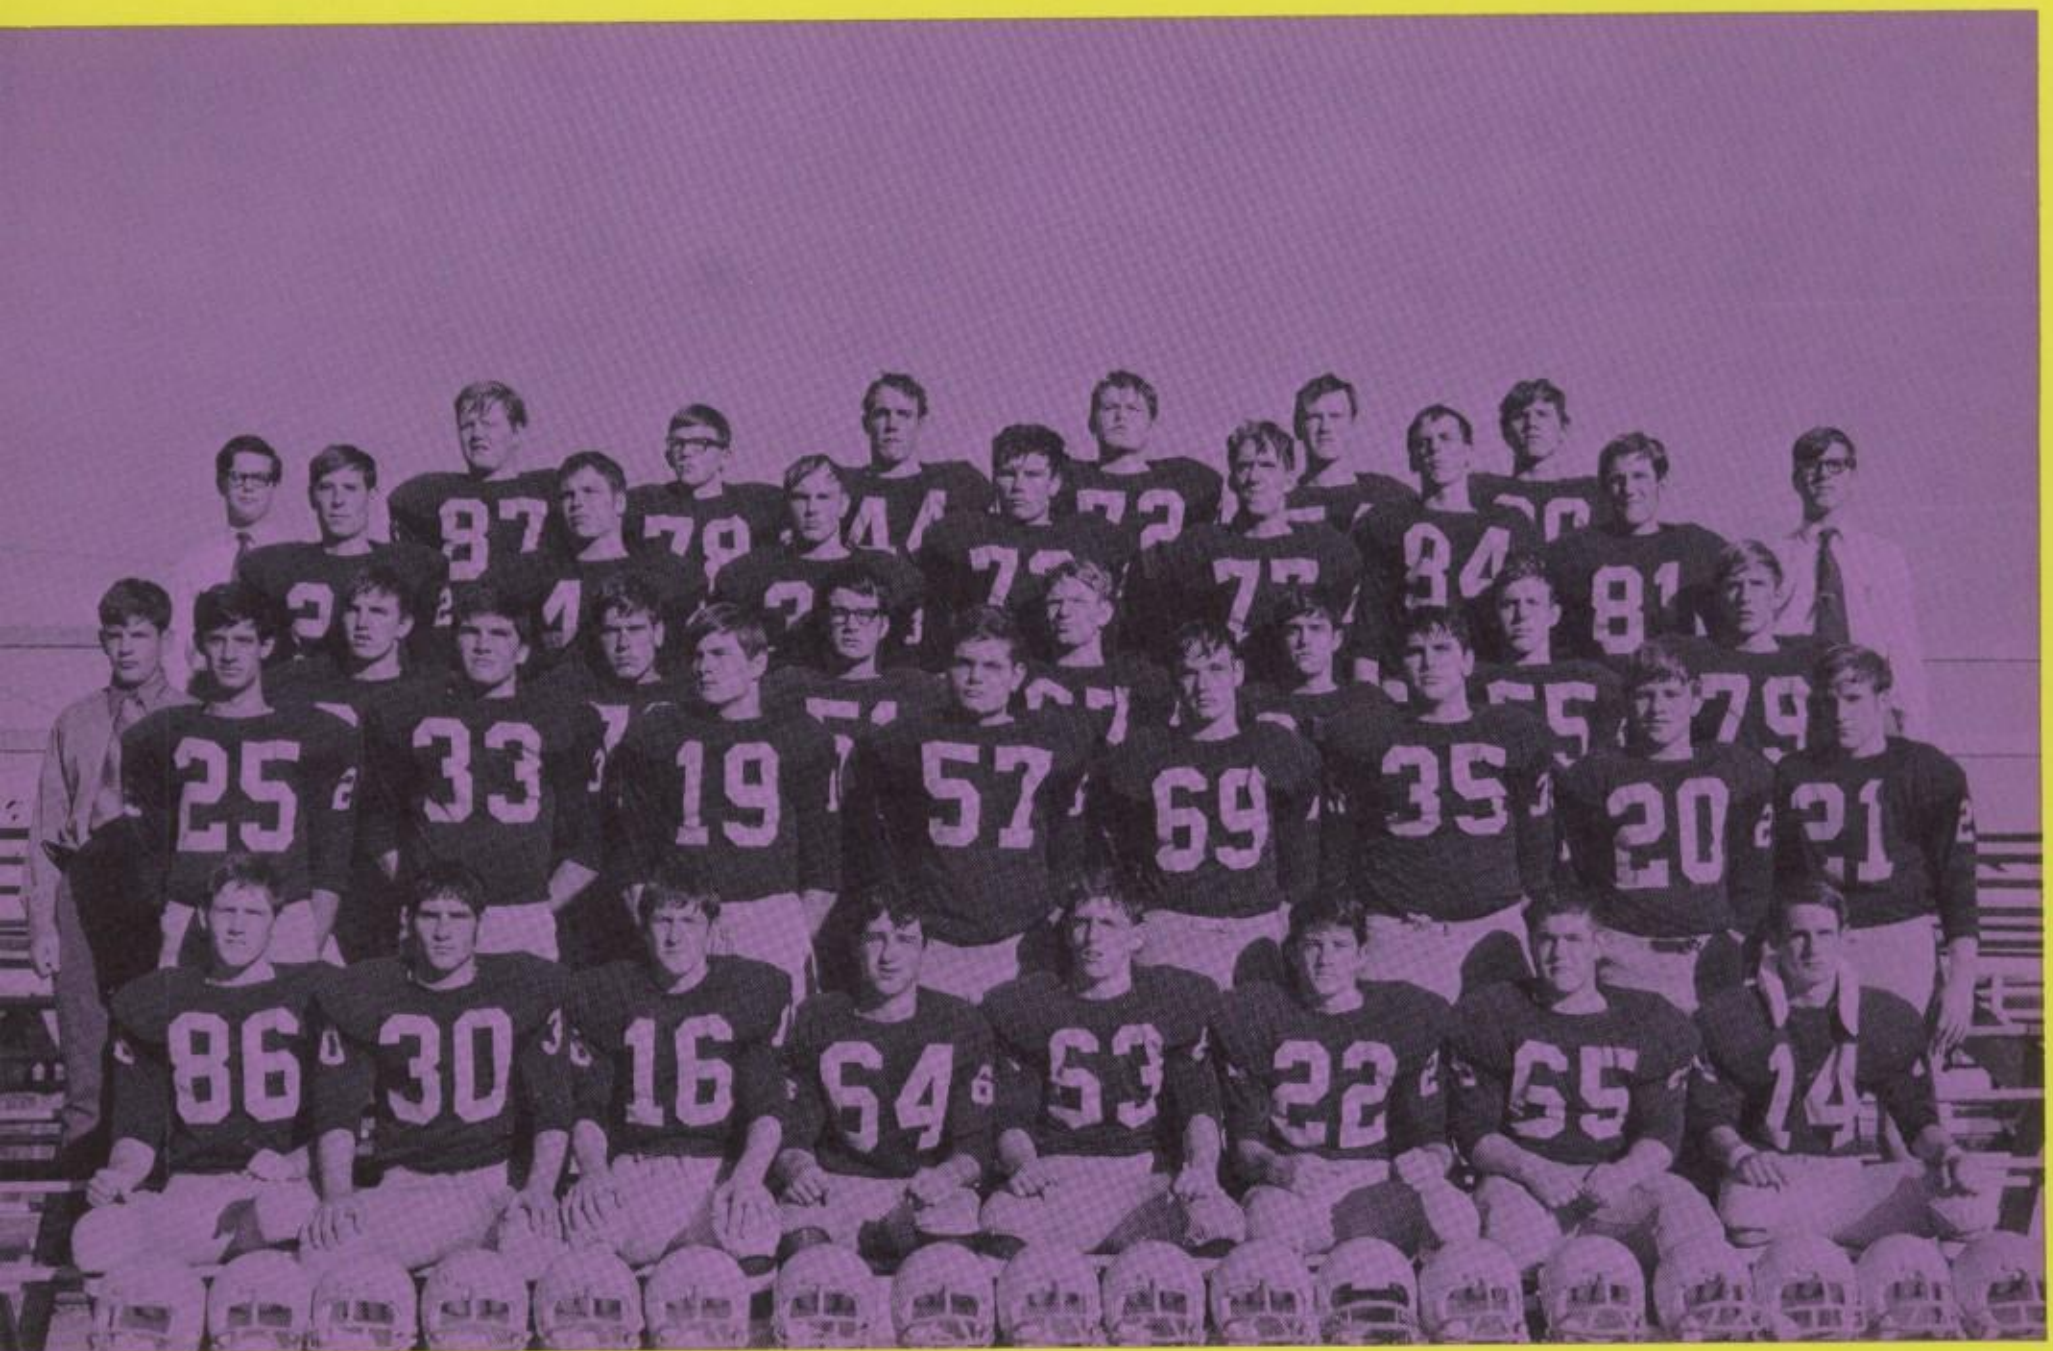

the echo of the Alma Mater,

Knowing one will miss the exhilaration of the game.

It was a good life.

Remember?

FINE

Achieving -

Life is neither pain nor pleasure;
It is serious business,
To be entered upon with courage
And in a spirit of self-sacrifice.

True wisdom is to know
What is best worth knowing,
And to do what is best worth doing.

We ought not to judge
Of men's merits
By their qualifications,
But by the use they make of them.

ACTIV

Living - Experiencing

Life consists of a full circle of experiences.

Activities provide us with reflections of a carefree past and a foundation for future involvements.

To begin is almost to end.

A day, a week, a year soon become memories of yesterday.

To be able to recall only the teaching and academic goals realized is to miss part of the essence of the years.

To remember only the chance moments and highlights of activities is to seek refuge from reality.

To place both in the proper perspective is to receive the full gift of education.

JTHS

Favors from the cheerleaders and a football field cake from some Senior girls are given to the Bengal team.

Much work went into a beautiful float for the Royalty.

Homecoming

Last year's queen, Connie Cooper, greets her heir with much happiness.

Homecoming Committee

Memories

Many parade downtown as part of the Homecoming Activities.

Coach Karlberg gives Kris the traditional football from the team.

A Homecoming Princess?

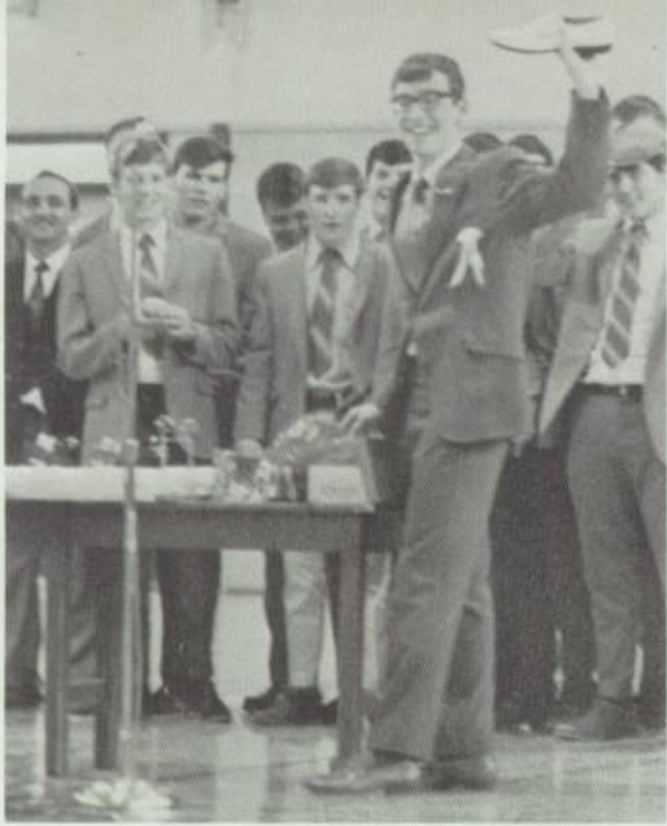

Carey expresses much joy to her friends.

Even the team joins in with the cheerleaders at the assembly.

Homecoming--a time of happiness, togetherness, loveliness--a time to remember.

Our Vice-President receives a new tradition--white shoes.

Much enthusiasm is shown at the serpentine.

Cheryl awaits halftime to crown the new Sophomore Princess.

Dan Wray was chosen Mr. Irresistible after a week of competition.

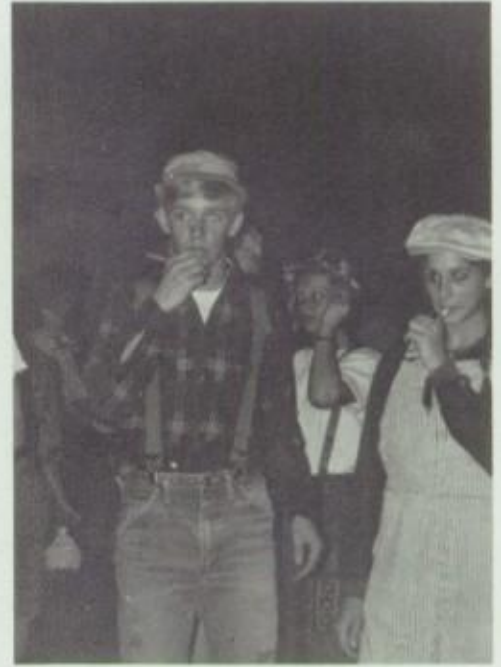

LHSers dressed hillbilly style at the Sadie Hawkins dance held in the old gym this year.

This year the Sadie Hawkins Dance was held in the old gym. We all remember the old YAC, and hope someday to obtain another building that can house the many memories that our old YAC did . . .

Stopping By Woods On A Snowy Evening

Whose woods these are I think I know.
His house is in the village though;
He will not see me stopping here
To watch his woods fill up with snow.

My little horse must think it queer
To stop without a farmhouse near Between the woods and frozen lake
The darkest evening of the year.

He gives his harness bells a shake
To ask if there is some mistake.
The only other sound's the sweep
Of easy wind and downy flake.

The woods are lovely, dark and deep,
But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep,
And miles to go before I sleep.

YAC Sweetheart Dance

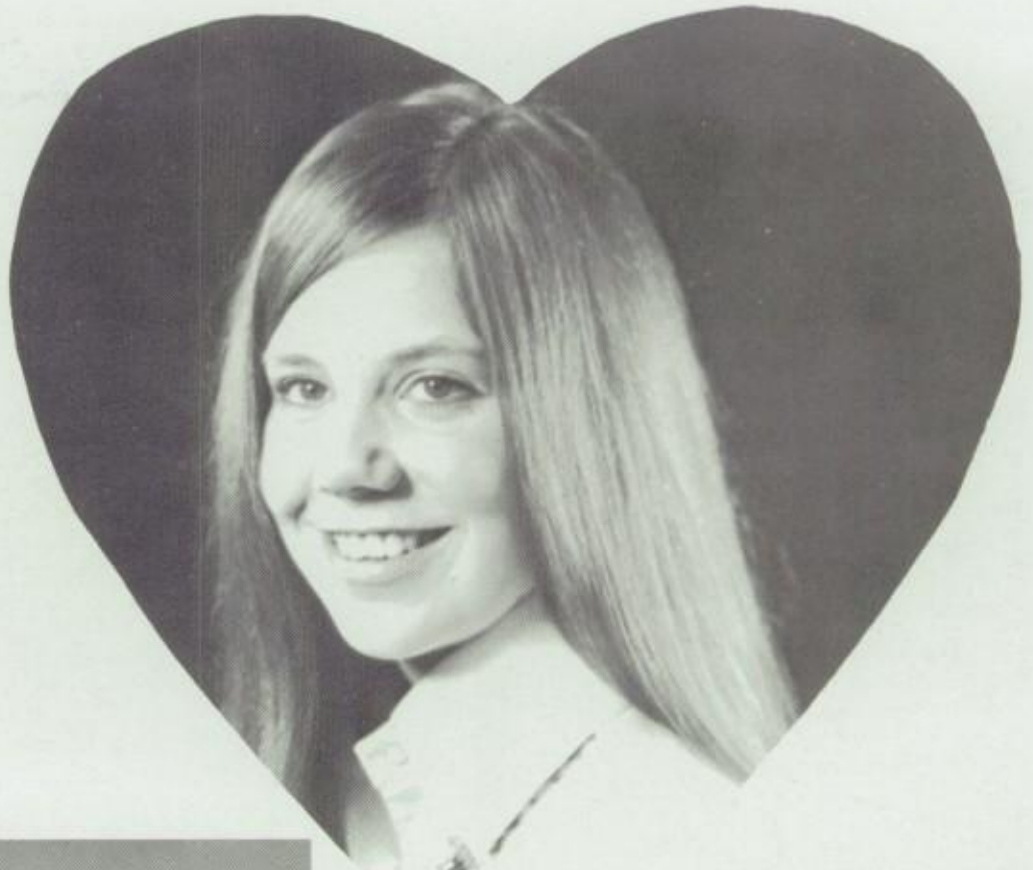

The annual Sweetheart Dance was held on February 13 at the Y.W.C.A. There was no stipulation on the kind of dress and it was open to couples and singles. This night proved eventful for many unsuspecting people whose hearts were pierced by those tiny arrows always evident in honor of St. Valentine's Day!

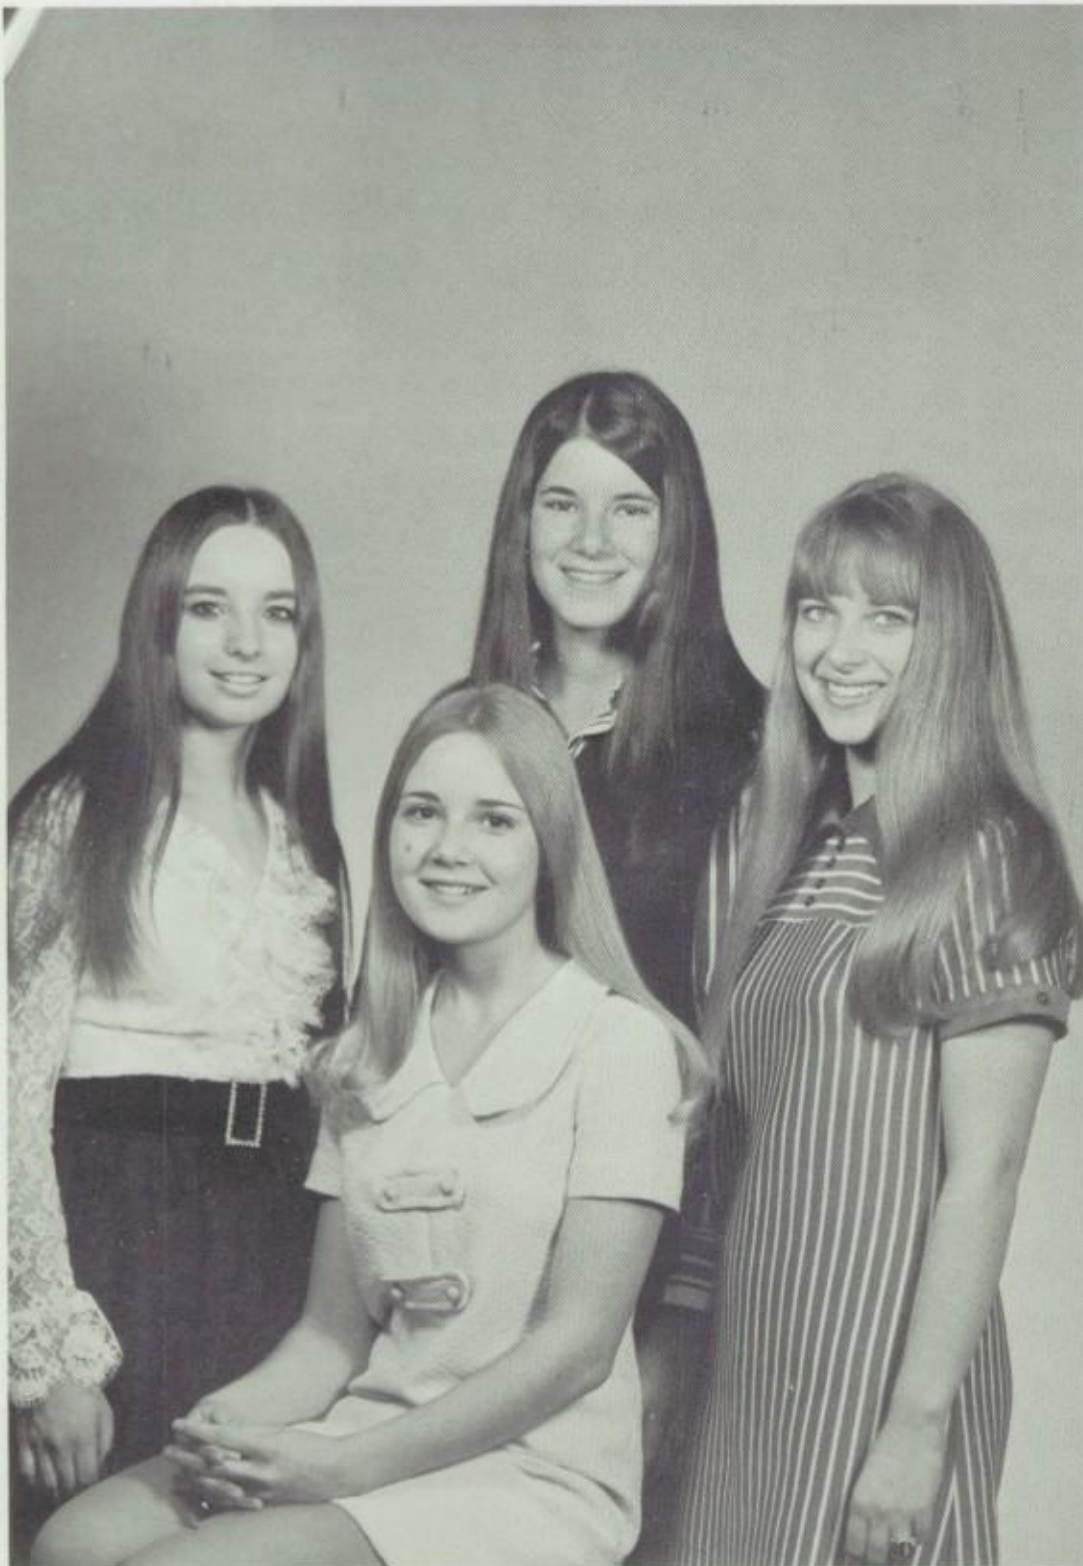

"The best are not only the happiest, but the happiest are usually the best."

Senior Tea

Every year the graduating seniors are honored at a tea given for them by the Purple and Gold League.

This year was an exceptional one, and a good time was had by all.

Seniors reach for their name tags which were on the centerpiece made of white-washed branches.

Many are called, but only two are chosen.

Ah, the punch was exquisite!

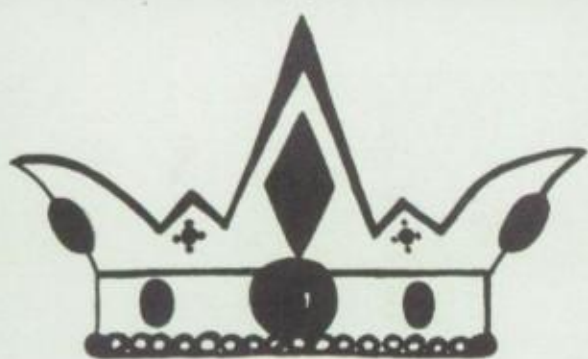

Wait a minute, I think you took mine.

Nancy and Von take time out to enjoy the good food.

Her third helping and she's still thirsty!

I WOULD LIKE TO GIVE THE 1970-71 BENGAL
STAFF A VERY SINCERE AND SPECIAL THANKS FOR THE OUTSTANDING JOB THEY DID ON OUR ANNUAL. THE 1971 BENGAL WAS ONCE A DREAM,
IT IS NOW A REALITY BECAUSE OF THE EFFORTS PUT FORTH BY MANY.

THE ANNUAL STAFF WOULD LIKE TO EXPRESS
OUR GREAT APPRECIATION TO NINA POLETIKA, WITHOUT NINA'S OUTSTANDING AND BEAUTIFUL
ARTWORK IN THE BENGAL OUR YEARBOOK WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN NEARLY SO SPECIAL AND UNIQUE.

ALSO MY THANKS AND APPRECIATION TO MR.
JAMES P. JENNINGS, OUR ADVISOR, FOR HIS CON-STANT PATIENCE, UNDERSTANDING, ENCOURAGE-MENT, AND SUPPORT IN HELPING THE ANNUAL
STAFF PRODUCE THE 1971 BENGAL.

THE YEARBOOK STAFF WOULD ALSO LIKE TO ACKNOWLEDGE AND THANK: THE IMEL, RADER, AND ENGSTROM STUDIOS, THE LEWISTON MORNING
TRIBUNE, THE AREA'S BUSINESSMEN, WELDON'S
PHOTO CRAFT CENTER, AND ALL OTHERS INVOLVED WITH THE 1970-1971 BENGAL FOR THEIR HELP AND CO-OPERATION.

THANK YOU AGAIN.
